

The North Dakota Driver and Traffic Safety Education Association is a professional organization for driver and traffic safety educators that promotes safe habits, attitudes, knowledge and instructional tools to develop driving skills for teen drivers.

ADSTEA & Summer Summary

ADTSEA Conference, Chicago, Illinois 2018

The North Dakota delegation that attended were: Jim Keller, Dale Ludwig, & Jeff Stewart.

Dale Ludwig, Minot, was awarded the Teacher Excellence Award (TEA) sponsored by The National Road Safety Foundation (NRSF), which honors outstanding driver and traffic safety educators. Dale is pictured with Dale Reich of Reich Communications and Michelle Anderson of the NRSF.

The ADTSEA Conference had many breakout sessions for the attendees to learn. They had different tracks to follow: Education & Training/Higher Education Division, Supervision, Administration & Research/Supervision & Administration Division, and Education & Training/Secondary Division.

Check out the ADTSEA website to see the different breakout sessions that were available for the attendees. <http://www.adtsea.org/>

The 2019 ADTSEA Conference is scheduled for July 21-24 in Burlington, Vermont

The 2020 ADTSEA Conference is scheduled for July 19-22 in Wichita, Kansas

The Executive Committee will be meeting in October to start planning the 2019 NDDTSEA Conference.

Safe roads to you and your student driver's,

Jim Keller, President